All set on 1.9 hectare of private land with stunning views of the Pyrenees.

Nestled in an exceptional setting, this delightful 200 m² character home will appeal to lovers of nature, open space, and authenticity.

As soon as you enter, the large entrance hall (13 m²) sets the tone of the house with its charm and character.

On the left, a newly fitted and fully equipped kitchen (22 m²) with a new wood-burning stove, both functional and modern. On the right, a bright and spacious living room (24 m²), extended by a welcoming dining room (26 m²), perfect for entertaining family and friends. This area opens onto a beautiful 26 m² terrace with unobstructed views, sheltered from prying eyes.

A laundry room, boiler room, and storage cupboards complete the practical facilities, adding comfort to everyday life.

Back in the hall, a magnificent central wooden staircase - the true backbone of the house - leads to the first floor, dedicated to the night quarters.

Upstairs, a generous landing, enhanced by large openings overlooking the inspiring surroundings, bathes the space in natural light and offers peaceful, ever-changing views of the landscape. The four bedrooms (10/13/17 and 21 m²) are all ideally oriented, enjoying the same preserved and breathtaking outlook.

The outbuilding, with its superb 70 m² covered terrace framed by beautiful pink Aurignac stone walls, adds undeniable charm to the property. A 20 m² workshop with convertible attic space is also available.

The 1.9-hectare grounds, nicely planted with trees, create a tranquil and natural setting.

Traditional construction with tiled roof (in perfect condition on the main house; brand new on the outbuilding), PVC double-glazed windows, brand-new thermodynamic water heater, oil-fired central heating complemented by a new wood-burning stove in the kitchen, and septic tank drainage.

Ideally located: 15 km from Saint-Gaudens, 1h15 from Toulouse and its international airport, and 2h30 from both the Mediterranean and the Atlantic coast.
